THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. In late December 1950 the North Koreans were planning to issue a new type of identity cards.
2. In late December 7,000 North Korean troops were stationed in the north school compound at Ta Hsi Men (大西門).*
3. On 10 December a military conference at Mukden was attended by LIN Piao, KAO Kang and chairmen of the provincial governments of the Northeast. The main discussion concerned the replacement of men and supplies on the Korean front. Plans were made to organize and train two million militia men for rear service units and reserves to replace frontline troops.

* Comment. Presumably this is the West Gate, Mukden.
